

SCOUT TROOPS TO TAKE PART IN SWIM MEET

125 Entries in Contests
To Be Conducted at Hill School

Twelve Pottstown area Boy Scout troops and Explorer units will take part in a swimming meet at The Hill school tomorrow night.

Beginning at 7 p.m., the meet will include contests for both swimmers and non-swimmers.

About 125 Scouts and Explorers are entered in the eight events. Stowe Troop 1 alone has 21 Scouts entered, and Limerick Troop 1 has 20.

Other units entered are Grace Lutheran Troop 15, St. James Lutheran Troop 18 and Explorer Post 166; First Presbyterian Troop 3, Graterford Troop 1, Graterford Explorer post, Stowe Explorer post, Evansburg Troop 2, Royersford Troop 2 and Zion's Reformed Troop 5.

Robert G. Weller, Continental district activities chairman, planned the program, and Leonard Bernhardt, former YMCA physical director, will act as starter for each event.

EVENTS on the program include the following:

1. Forty-yard free-style race for Explorers.

2. Twenty-yard race with feet tied.

3. Non-swimmers' leap-frog race.

4. Open 160-yard free-style relay.

5. Non-swimmers' candy scramble.

6. Explorers relay, 40 yards and distance.

7. Eighty-yard lighted candle relay for Scouts.

8. Open jackpot scramble.

An engraved plaque will go to the troop winning the most points, Weller said.

Few local troops held meetings this week because of the holidays. Those that met worked on advancement.

There was one exception, though. Troop 15 was entertained with a Christmas party by its Women's auxiliary.

About 65 Scouts, parents and friends who attended, spent the evening exchanging dollar gifts, playing games and enjoying refreshments provided by auxiliary members.

Assistant Scoutmaster Robert Marquette was in charge at the meeting of First Methodist Troop 4 in the absence of Scoutmaster Dan Pettigrew.

Troop 18 was another that met. Members spent the evening working on Tenderfoot requirements.

Building Industries Group Holds Dinner Meeting

Twenty-seven members of the Building Industries Exchange organization held a dinner meeting last night at Lakeside inn.

President Tilghman Hauseman presided at a short business session.

Two representatives of the group attended a public hearing in borough hall last night on a proposed new borough zoning ordinance, which the group has generally approved. The representatives were Carl N. Binder and Warren Zern.

Hearing Continued On Driving Charge

A scheduled Saturday night hearing for Burton Hemmig, 449 Lincoln avenue, on a charge of drunken driving, has been continued until tonight at 7 p.m. in borough hall.

Justice of the Peace Raymond C. Kelley said he granted the continuance at the request of Louis Sager, attorney representing Hemmig. Kelley said a decision will be made then upon holding Hemmig for an appearance in court.

Hemmig was arrested Dec. 19 on Hale street after police said his car jumped the curb, striking a parked vehicle owned by Edward Moore, 25 Prince street, was arrested Friday morning and admitted taking a car owned by Odell Cooper, 45 King street, Penn Village. Moore later struck a parked car owned by William Hillegas, 24 Scott street, Penn Village, and suffered lacerations to the forehead.

He was released on $500 bail, which was held over Saturday night by Justice of the Peace Raymond C. Kelley at a hearing in borough hall.

Motor Patrolman William A.

Borow made the arrest and took Hemmig to borough hall, where a physician examined him and pronounced him unfit to drive. He was released on $500 bail.

Separation of Prisons In State Proclaimed

HARRISBURG, Dec. 28 (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine today officially proclaimed the separation of Rockview prison from Western State Penitentiary and Graterford from the Eastern State penitentiary.

The separation of the two branch prisons under the governor's directive becomes effective next Jan. 15. Legislation paving the way for the action was approved by the 1953 General Assembly following the recommendations of Fine's special prison investigating committee.

Mars, who made the arrest, testified as to what happened Friday morning.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1953

No true and permanent fame can be founded except in labors which promote the happiness of mankind.

—Charles Sumner.

Cheat Death; Stay Alive
DEATH rode the highways over the long Christmas week-end.

While more than 500 persons across the nation paid with their lives for traffic carelessness, the Pottstown area was not left untouched by the bony fingers of Fate.

A 26-year-old Montgomery countian was killed in Red Hill when the automobile in which he was a passenger skidded 235 feet, knocked over a fire hydrant, utility pole and speed limit sign.

And it is where your journey takes you, near or far, you are always fair game for highway carelessness.

Which emphasizes all the more that one can't be too careful when behind the wheel.
Reasonable speed, stopping at stop signs, obeying road instructions, these and all the other well defined legal restrictions are not enough. The greatest rule of the road is that you must have your car under complete control all the time and able to stop on a figurative dime.

Death stalks the Swamp pike and the Gravel pike as surely as it stalks the Lincoln highway. No one is safe from death's clutches no matter where he goes.

So play safe at all times.

Another long holiday week-end looms this week. It includes the fanatical New Year's Eve celebration which renders it even more death-potent than the Christmas week-end.

Be extra safe over the coming week-end.
Assume that every oncoming car is heading straight for you; assume that a maniac will dash through every intersection. Be ready to stop within a car's length.

The innocent is fair game for Death on the Highways.

Stay alive for a Happy New Year!

The Hill Faces Off
ANOTHER sort of Pottstown athletic team will take to the wars tonight when a hockey team from The Hill will cross sticks with the puck pushers of St. Mark's school, Southborough, Mass.

The fray will be waged in New York's famed Madison Square Garden, prime goal of all indoor sports athletes the world over.

Tonight's debut of the Blue and Gray hockeyites will not mark the first time that a Pottstown-spawned hockey team has faced off. There have been hockey teams at The Hill ever since 1906 but the sport was never taken too seriously, chiefly because of a lack of ice.

But this year's Hill hockey team is designed to be taken seriously, for a spanking new artificial ice rink will be ready for use in February. And then the skaters can slash the ice to their heart's content.

Credit for the rejuvenation of ice hockey
at The Hill goes solely to Headmaster Ned Hall, who tended goal for St. Mark's some 20 years ago. Soon after Hall's arrival on the local scene he embarked on a one-man campaign for establishment of the rink. It was supposed to be finished the past Fall but contractor delays prevented its being used for practice for the opener tonight. With Mr. Hall at the helm and an artificial rink, there can be no doubt that Pottstonians will be hearing a lot of their representatives in hockey circles in the future.

St. Mark's is situated in frigid New England and a veteran of past Garden hockey melees, are odds-on to spoil The Hill's debut tonight.
But come what may, tonight marks a milestone in Pottstown athletic history. And local sports fans look forward to many a Hill ice victory in the future.

Santa Visits North Pole!
IF you have any susceptible children in the family you might hide this piece from them, but we thought older Santa Claus addicts would be interested in the news that US air force personnel at the North Pole didn't miss Christmas.

These fellows are stationed at outposts near the pole and a C54 plane has been dropping gift packages to their icy shelters.

If you have any impulse to say something about carrying coals to Newcastle, please suppress it in deference to the holiday.

Another item out of the north may be of even greater importance to the soldiers stationed there.

Two nurses have been sent to Thule air base in Greenland, the first women in the history of the air force to be assigned so far north.

We have an idea the soldiers wear more interested in them than in Santa.

PUNKIN CORNERS
Editor, The Mercury
Dear Sir 'N' Brother:

Wal, I see whar some Pottstown feller is going to be 102 years old this week, and he says it's on account of clean livin' and good doctors. I can't figger that one out. If you're livin' clean, what do you need good doctors for?

"N' I see whar an Italian farmer dug up a three-and-one-half-pound truffle.
A truffle, maybe, but certainly no trifle.

Now the doctors are handin' out advice for New Year's Eve. The Journal of the American Medical Association says that after a couple of drinks a person should wait three hours before undertaking an important activity.
Wal, that's a pretty long time between second and third drinks, I think.

Hopin' you air the same.

No true and permanent fame can be founded except in labors which promote the happiness of mankind.

—Charles Sumner.

Cheat Death; Stay Alive

DEATH rode the highways over the long Christmas week-end.

While more than 500 persons across the nation paid with their lives for traffic carelessness, the Pottstown area was not left untouched by the boney fingers of Fate.

A 26-year-old Montgomery countian was killed in Red Hill when the automobile in which he was a passenger skidded 235 feet, knocked over a fire hydrant, utility pole and speed limit sign.

And so it is wherever your journey takes you, near or far, you are always fair game for highway carelessness.

Which emphasizes all the more that one can't be too careful when behind the wheel. Reasonable speed, stopping at stop signs, obeying road instructions, these and all the other well defined legal restrictions are not enough. The greatest rule of the road is that you must have your car under complete control all the time and able to stop on a figurative dime.

Death stalks the Swamp pike and the Gravel pike as surely as it stalks the Lincoln highway. No one is safe from death's clutches no matter where he goes.

So play safe at all times.

Another long holiday week-end looms this week. It includes the fanatical New Year's Eve celebration which renders it even more death-potent than the Christmas week-end.

Be extra safe over the coming week-end. Assume that every oncoming car is heading straight for you; assume that a maniac will dash through every intersection. Be ready to stop within a car's length.

The innocent is fair game for Death on the highways.

Stay alive for a Happy New Year!

The Hill Faces Off

ANOTHER sort of Pottstown athletic team will take to the wars tonight when a hockey team from The Hill will cross sticks with the puck pushers of St. Mark's school, Southborough, Mass.

The fray will be waged in New York's famed Madison Square Garden, prime goal of all indoor sports athletes the world over.

Tonight's debut of the Blue and Gray hockeyites will not mark the first time that a Pottstown-spawned hockey team has faced off. There have been hockey teams at The Hill ever since 1906 but the sport was never taken too seriously, chiefly because of a lack of ice.

But this year's Hill hockey team is destined to be taken seriously, for a spanking new artificial ice rink will be ready for use in February. And then the skaters can slash the ice to their heart's content.

Credit for the rejuvenation of ice hockey at The Hill goes solely to Headmaster Ned Hall, who tended goal for St. Mark's some 20 years ago. Soon after Hall's arrival on the local scene he embarked on a one-man campaign for establishment of the rink. It was supposed to be finished the past Fall but contractor delays prevented its being used for practice for the opener tonight. With Mr. Hall at the helm and an artificial rink, there can be no doubt that Pottstonians will be hearing a lot of their representatives in hockey circles in the future.

St. Mark's situated in frigid New England and a veteran of past Garden hockey melees, are odds-on to spoil The Hill's debut tonight. But come what may, tonight marks a milestone in Pottstown athletic history. And local sports fans look forward to many a Hill ice victory in the future.

Santa Visits North Pole!

If you have any susceptible children in the family you might hide this piece from them, but we thought older Santa Claus would be interested in the news that US air force personnel at the North Pole didn't miss Christmas.

These fellows are stationed at outposts near the pole and a C54 plane has been dropping gift packages to their icy shelters.

If you have any impulse to say something about carrying coals to Newcastle, please suppress it in deference to the holiday.

Another item out of the north may be of greater importance to the soldiers stationed there.

Two nurses have been sent to Thule air base in Greenland, the first women in the history of the air force to be assigned in the White House in the field of foreign affairs.

Speaking as a military authority rather than as President, Eisenhower seeks to re-create the situation which existed at the start of World War I and World War II. He regards this objective as essential.

In the first conflict, France and England stayed off the Germans from 1914 to April of 1917 permitting us to rearm and manufacture munitions.

The British gave us two years of grace from 1939 to 1941. We will need a shorter period the next time, in view of post-Korean rearmament, but Europe must hold the line on its own in the early stages. It will then become clear whether we must again send large-scale forces to the front.

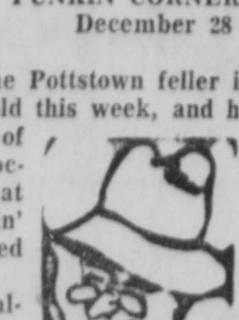

"N' I see whar some Pottstown feller is going to be 102 years old this week, and he says it's on account of clean livin' and good doc-tors. I can't figger that one out. If you're livin' clean, what do you need good doctors for?"

"N' I see whar an Italian farmer dug up a three-and-one-half-pound truffle. A truffle, maybe, but cert-tainly no trifle."

Now the doctors are handin' out advice for New Year's Eve. The Journal of the American Medical Association says that after a couple of drinks a person should wait three hours before undertaking an important activity. Wal, that's a pert long time between second and third drinks, I think."

Let's Get Clean Streets

A Resolution

To the Editor: New Year's is coming and I'd wish Pottstown people would make a resolution to keep their streets clean. It's a shame that our automobile owners couldn't show a little appreciation by moving their cars when the sweater was in action.

After all, the people who park outdoors all night save a lot of money in garage rent. They could cooperate a little more. I hope the borough cracks down on them. I get mad when I hear them griping when they say they can't park right in front of their homes.

What do they think, they own the streets? Are they afraid to walk a couple of steps. Then I get madder when I hear of some grouchy old woman who complain when somebody parks in front of their houses.

Do they also think they own the streets?

This is the time of year when such people ought to wise up. Show a little happiness. Give a little to the other guy.

I hope we get clean streets. It helps keep my house clean, as every mother knows who has children who track in the dirt.

Pottstown HOUSEWIFE

He's Grateful

To the Editor: Why do some people always become jealous and take the wrong slant on things? I refer to The Mercury's fine description of the Christmas lights around town.

Instead of being satisfied that the paper is doing its level best to present the Christmas story to the public, I find some homeowners are jealous of what

WASHINGTON

New Defense Policy Would Change US Role

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28—The Eisenhower Administration's new and long-range European defense policy envisages transformation of the United States from a recruiting center of troops into the role foreseen by FDR after the outbreak of World War II—namely, an "arsenal of democracy."

Whether future conditions will permit such a shift of military emphasis is debatable, but that is the underlying aim.

It was this realization, as well as Secretary Dulles' sharp warning on the need for prompt buildup of a European Army with German components, which angered the Paris Government. The French realize that Washington has already made an "agonizing appraisal" of military capacities and possibilities in an atomic age.

All available evidence convinces them that, insofar as possible, we expect the Europeans to provide the bulk of fighting manpower, while we supply air and naval reinforcement, atomic arms and artillery, and behind-the-line materials.

NATO'S CONTINGENTS: With Germany, Italy and Spain included in a West European force, Pentagon experts believe that the NATO nations on the continent could muster a 3,000,000-man ground force. Token British and American contingents—we already have about 250,000 men in this area—would increase the total to 3,500,000.

With air and atomic superiority furnished by Britain and the US, it is felt that such a force could contain the Russians. In addition, there would be Turkish, Greek and Yugoslavian reinforcements to harass the Reds' left flank in an invasion of the West.

Congress likewise interprets recent national defense decisions to mean this sort of realignment, and Capitol Hill generally approves. It has long advocated the rearrangement by the National Security Council and the Chiefs of Staff.

They have recommended reduction of the Army from 3,500,000 to 2,855,000, an increase in airplane strength, and decommissioning of our remaining four battleships in favor of more aircraft carriers. All these moves look toward radical revision of our national and European defense establishment.

PRIMARY CONCERN: The task of persuading or forcing Europe to mobilize such a vast holding force has now become the primary concern of the White House in the field of foreign affairs.

Speaking as a military authority rather than as President, Eisenhower seeks to re-create the situation which existed at the start of World War I and World War II. He regards this objective as essential.

In the first conflict, France and England stayed off the Germans from 1914 to April of 1917 permitting us to rearm and manufacture munitions.

FOX HUNTER INJURED—John Reitmeier, of 206 South Franklin street, was run over by a horseman at a fox hunt being held in Lower Pottsgrove. The accident occurred near George C. Holenbach's cider mill near Sanatoga. Reitmeier was trying to catch the fox when the mounted huntsman ran over him, causing serious injuries. He was brought to Pottstown on a trolley car by Charles and Hugh Guest, this borough.

That helps me get my work done, and keeps them busy, too. Besides, the next time they return, I have noticed that the very first thing they do is run over to the trees or flowers they have previously set out, to see how they are growing.

He tells about one of his own early experiences when he was in the Pennsylvania legislature. An influential but aristocratic fellow member had ignored him in the hall one day.

Franklin felt a little resentful. But he decided it would be far more sensible to win this man's friendship than to let him remain indifferent or even hostile.

Franklin was interested in a certain book which he knew this man had. So he sent him a little note asking permission to read one of the rare volumes.

The aristocrat immediately wrote back saying he was very happy to lend the rare book and sent it along by the same messenger.

Franklin enjoyed reading it and soon returned it, accompanied by a "Thank you" note.

The next time Franklin passed this aristocrat in the legislative hall, the latter went out of his way to shake his hand and ask him how he liked the book.

Thereafter, he became one of Benjamin Franklin's best friends and supporters throughout the Revolutionary War period.

Now the doctors are handin' out advice for New Year's Eve. The Journal of the American Medical Association says that after a couple of drinks a person should wait three hours before undertaking an important activity. Wal, that's a pert long time between second and third drinks, I think."

is said about their neighbors' displays. Isn't that too bad? They complain the Mercury didn't count every bulb in their display, that there were 269 instead of 268! They say The Mercury didn't mention that Santa's reindeers move when the winds blow!

What do they expect? I think it was just find that my name was mentioned in the paper and I want to thank The Mercury for performing a public service.

In Reply to "Female Hunter"

To the Editor: In reply to "Female Hunter" (Readers Say, Dec. 24):

Naturally I took it for granted you are a Christian. Aren't most of the hunters? Especially those night hunters who like to surprise the deer in their sleep.

However, your Christianity has new angle. You thank God for the blessings of being a good sportswoman by killing the unarmed deer in broad daylight when it is less painful.

And all because you hungered after venison steak that you were unable to obtain at your grocer's.

How tragic! Starving little Korean orphans are fighting over garbage.

I find it hard to believe in such brotherhood.

Physical hunger satisfied, I'll admit "this pen drips with sarcasm," as you say; but just so it doesn't drip with the blood of animals suits me.

Pottstown LEE

One for the Road

To the Editor: I endorse the suggestion that a cup of coffee be served as the final drink of every holiday party—the "one for the road." Even though some narrow persons may say this is a matter of being a good sportswoman by killing the unarmed deer in broad daylight when it is less painful.

And if you think the law wasn't intended for you, then have a little common courtesy and regard for the motorist behind.

Pottstown K. F. T.

commercial for coffee makers, I say because coffee is a medically-authenticated antidote for alcohol, it should be given before the motorist drives home.

I do not claim that a cup of coffee will instantly make an unfit driver completely sober but I do hold that if his last drink is coffee instead of something stronger that driver's chances for a safe trip home will be improved.

Tests conducted at Cornell university have proved that coffee taken after drinking reduces the number of errors made because of inebriety. Errors cause highway accidents.

The considerate host or hostess will go a step further.

Where a guest is obviously unfit to drive, it is a moral if not legal obligation of the host to prevent that guest from getting behind the wheel of his car.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Cessner and family, Oklahoma City, Okla., are spending the Christmas holidays with Mr. Cessner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cessner of Chestnut street.

Mrs. S. D. Cornish returned home last week from Montgomery hospital where she was a patient for several weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. William A. Allgair, South River, N. J. announced the birth of a daughter, Margaret Alice, Dec. 9 in New Brunswick hospital. Mrs. Allgair will be remembered as Barbara Manning, daughter of Mrs. Frank L. Manning of Sixth avenue. The Allgair's other daughters, Christine and Nancy, were staying with the Mannings.

John Manning has arrived home from the University of Illinois in Urbana to spend the Christmas holidays here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Manning.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCann, Mrs. Ruth Williams and Donna Williams were the

Wrong Wager Made
By Man in Tavern

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 28 (AP)—Delbert Probus knew he was wrong five minutes after offering to bet the $470 he carried was more than a friend had.

Probus said he put the money on a table at a tavern, then went to the restroom. When he got back, money and friend were gone.

Probus said the friend is a man named Wilson, about 28, and was wearing a baseball jacket.

Tools chipped by men of the Stone Age have, in more recent times, often been thought to have medicinal value.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne L. Richards of 224 Mineral street are well protected against both heat and cold.

The chimney on the left is part of the Richards' hot-air heating system which takes care of them in the winter. The cupola on the roof of the wing at the right is the ventilator for an air conditioning unit which worked effectively the past summer.

—Mercury Staff Photo

Richards is employed at Doehler-Jarvis. He is a native of Fagleyville and his wife is from Fruitville. They have a son, Gerald G. Richards, a local contractor, and a daughter, Arlene, who is Mrs. Walter Dames of Pottstown RD 3.

The one-level home has two bedrooms, a living room, kitchen and two baths. The Richards have been living there since the past June.

Late Carroll Rutter Eulogized at Services Held by Bar Group

NORRISTOWN, Dec. 28 — The late attorney, Carroll L. Rutter, of Pottstown, eulogized as "an able lawyer, a fine person and a good friend," during memorial services conducted by the Montgomery County Courts and Bar Association in the Courthouse today.

The annual ceremonies were conducted by Judges Corson, Dannenhauer and Forrest, of the Common Pleas court, and Judge Holman, Orphans' court.

In addition to Attorney Rutter, who died the past April 11, tributes also were paid to Attorneys Edward M. Hawes, Plymouth township, William Pyle, West Chester, who also died during the year.

Attorney William A. O'Donnell Jr., an associate of the late Pottstown lawyer, presented the minute concerning Mr. Rutter.

Auto 'Sandwiched' In Crash in Borough

Two cars were damaged yesterday afternoon on South Hanover street when one motorist stopped suddenly and the following car struck his vehicle from the rear.

Marquiss M. Ward, 550 Washington street, Royersford, told police he struck the rear of a car operated by Dorothy Cressman, Millersville, when she stopped suddenly and his "brakes didn't hold."

Ward's car pushed the Cressman vehicle into a third car operated by Harry J. Wells, Pottstown RD 3, but the latter car was undamaged.

The entire front of Ward's car was damaged, while the Cressman car had damage to the trunk lid, two parking lights, the right front fender and the grill.

Motor Patrolman Thomas Corum investigated the accident, which occurred at 4:58 p.m.

Man Leaves $2000 To Two Daughters

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, Dec. 28 — Personal property tentatively valued at $2000 constituted the estate of E. Sumner Brownback, 70, of 615 Washington street, Royersford, who died Dec. 6, it was disclosed as his will was probated in the courthouse.

He bequeathed $1000 each to daughters, Ida B. Kline and Arlene B. Seal, and the residue to his wife, Mayme R. Brownback.

Lewis F. Freese, 82, of Upper Pottsgrove, who died Nov. 10, left a $10,000 estate. As he died without leaving a will, his next of kin under the intestate laws are two brothers, John O. Freese and Daniel B. Freese; a sister, Irene F. Steinmetz; three nephews, Ambrose, 2d, Hammond Crosson and John Halteman; three nieces, Lottie Halteman, Della F. Spaulding and Mildred F. Schultz, and a grandnephew, William Bechtel.

ALLIES CONFER Majority Report Blames South Korea ON NEW DATE For Wrecking Prisoner Explanations FOR PARLEY

PANMUNJOM, Tuesday, Dec. 29 (UPI)—Two versions of how prisoners' explanations were wrecked, one blaming South Korea, the other Communists, were studied today by the United Nations and Red commands.

Acceptance of Time Set by Russia Likely

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 (UPI)—The State department indicated today that the United States, acting in concert with Britain and France, is prepared to accept Russia's proposal to delay a Big Four conference of foreign ministers until Jan. 25.

A spokesman implied, however, that the Jan. 25 date should be made "firm" as promptly as possible, with no further delaying moves by the Soviets.

The Western Allies had originally suggested Jan. 4 as the date for the Big Four's top diplomats to meet in Berlin to discuss the future of Germany and Austria.

In reply, the Russians proposed a delay of at least three weeks—a move which would give the Soviets a chance to size up the new French Government, scheduled to be organized some time after Jan. 17, and perhaps shape their strategy accordingly.

SOME WESTERN diplomats believe the Soviets are sparing for time to try to devise new ways to block the American-backed plan to set up a Six-Nation European Defense Army.

The project, known as the European Defense Community (EDC), has been bitterly opposed by Moscow.

A Soviet note proposing the delay until Jan. 25 or later was delivered to the Western powers Saturday. The United States quickly issued an implied warning that the Russians were trying to sway France away from European unity.

Henry Suydam, State department press officer, told newsmen today the United States is communicating with Britain and France on the question of a reply to the Soviet note. There seemed little doubt that the Big Three would agree to the delay, although with some reluctance.

US, Russia Discuss Return of 186 Ships

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 (UPI)—The United States and Russia today discussed return of 186 American ships lend-leased to the Soviets during World War II. The State department said "no conclusions" were reached.

The question, outstanding for years, will be taken up again at a meeting Thursday. Russia has agreed to return the ships, but so far neither side has been able to work out detailed arrangements for the transaction.

MADRID, Spain, Dec. 28 (UPI)—Crooner Frank Sinatra and his actress wife, Ava Gardner, who have been estranged, left together on a plane for Rome tonight after spending Christmas with friends in Madrid.

Sinatra was reported to have come to Europe to try to patch up his troubled marriage. Ava has been spending the winter in Italy to make a picture, but came to Madrid just before Christmas.

Ike Calls Demo Leaders For Preview of Message

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 (UPI)—Republican leaders, obviously eyeing next Fall's elections, today stressed a desire for legislative harmony with the Democrats as they began clearing the way for re-convening Congress on Jan. 6.

The UN Command was not expected to deviate from its firm stand that the 90-day period for explanations ended Dec. 23 and that unless a political convention can be convened and deal with the prisoners by Jan. 22 they must be released to civilian status.

An Indian command spokesman said if the two sides can reach an agreement by Jan. 22 on the prisoners "we do not appear to have any legal right to hold them." He expressed the belief the matter might be brought before the Military Armistice commission and the UN General Assembly.

The Reds could be expected to use the majority report in support of demands that the explanations be resumed until 90 days of actual interviews have taken place. They insist that "agents" of South Korea and Nationalist China in the anti-Red compounds prevented Communist teams from making explanations except on ten days.

The Reds got backing in the majority report which concluded that not even the few prisoners who did show up for the explanations "were completely freed from force or threat of force."

Skid Row Residents Remember Fireman

CHICAGO, Dec. 28 (UPI)—A tattered man shuffled into the firehouse of Truck Company 2, not far from Skid Row today.

He handed to Lt. John Howe a cigar box which had been sealed with paper and had a slot cut through the top. On it was lettered "contributions for the family of Bob Jordan killed in the tragedy."

Jordan, a member of Truck Company 2, died Dec. 17 in a fire which destroyed the Reliance hotel, claiming the lives of a resident and four other firemen also.

Marshal Robert J. Quinn of the first division, standing near Howe, asked, "who shall we say it's from?"

"Just say it's from Tic-Tac-Toe,"

Flames Leap Toward Observatory As Forest Fire Rages Out of Control

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 28 (UPI)—Klinger term it a "very bad situation, less than a half mile away, action." He said flames are coming up steep wooded slopes to down mountains on several fronts toward famed Mt. Wilson observatory and the foothill towns. More than 1,000 men are on the fire lines, television transmitter area today. A volunteer fireman, Robert Sneed, 20, was injured carrying a hose line up a mountain side. No other casualties have been reported.

Already this fire, 12 miles east of here, and another one 20 miles farther east have forced 2500 persons from their homes and are believed to have destroyed 136 vacation cabins. Both fires are in the San Gabriel mountains.

More than 10,000 acres of valuable timber and watershed land have been blackened, posing flood dangers when spring rains arrive. Although the fire cause is undetermined, a serious winter drought is a contributing factor.

Richard S. Johnson, fire prevention officer of Angeles National Forest, termed the Mt. Wilson fire the worst of a year during which more than 70,000 acres have been burned.

Gusts up to 30 m.p.h. whipped the flames up Mt. Wilson last night. A favorable wind today, however, was blowing against the fire and slowing its progress toward the valuable installations. Velocities of 25-30 m.p.h. are expected tonight.

Battalion chief William A. Sherrill said this change in the wind has lessened the danger to the observatory, which houses the 100-inch telescope, second largest in the world.

Majority Report Blames South Korea
For Wrecking Prisoner Explanations

PANMUNJOM, Tuesday, Dec. 29 (P)—Two versions of how prisoners were wrecked, one blaming South Korea, the other Communists, were studied today by the United Nations and Red commands.

Authoritative observers here expected the reports by the Neutral Nations Repatriation commission to:

1. Make no change in the UN Command's stand that the explanations are over.

2. Step up Red demands that the explanations be resumed.

3. Draw new fire from the South Korea Government at India, whose officials headed up supervision of the explanations and guarded the prisoners.

The breakdown of explanations by more than 22,000 Chinese and North Korean prisoners refusing to return to Communism was blamed on South Korea in a majority report of the commission.

Chairman India and delegates of Communist Poland and Czechoslovakia agreed there was evidence that a general headquarters in Seoul, directed by South Korea's provost marshal, controlled all 55

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 (P)—Republican leaders, obviously eyeing next Fall's elections, today stressed a desire for legislative harmony with the Democrats as they began clearing the way for re-convening Congress on Jan. 6.

Senator Knowland of California the GOP Senate leader, said he will confer this week, possibly tomorrow, with Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader.

And in Augusta, Ga., President Eisenhower announced he had called Democratic congressional leaders to a Jan. 5 preview of his State of the Union message, which he will deliver to Congress two days later.

Knowland said he had been consulted on the President's plan and "I thoroughly approve of it."

"I think it's a good policy," he said. "It's one that should be continued and will be continued."

Knowland said Eisenhower always had consulted Democrats as well as Republicans about foreign and defense policies. These two major issues also involve domestic problems, he added, so the Democrats should get advance information on the whole State of the Union message.

The immediate problem on which Knowland and Johnson must agree is placing Democrats and Republicans on several important Senate committees. They face an unusual situation in that the Democrats have 48 Senate seats to 47 for the Republicans. There is one Independent.

Economists See Mild Slump in 1954

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 (P)—A majority of some 300 economists in conference here agreed today the country is having "an orthodox recession," mild but general, and carrying with it a cut in production and payrolls.

A show of hands at a forum conducted by the American Statistical Association, they subscribed by a margin of at least 3-1 to the belief that the business slump would last through 1954.

But the consensus was that there is nothing to get excited about.

Even if industrial production falls as much as 5 percent below this year's record level, as some economists predict, they say it would still leave 1954 as the second best business year in the country's history.

A majority of the economists at the meeting rejected the view of Eisenhower Administration spokesmen that the business downturn is in a brief "adjustment" period after the defense boom.

"Unemployment might rise from 1½ million in 1953 to perhaps 3½ million in 1954," he said.

MOST GOVERNMENT officials have described the Autumn dip as either a "rolling readjustment"—meaning a situation in which some segments of the economy move down while others rise with little overall change in business

Only a few of the experts at the forum agreed with these analyses.

None of the economists present believed that production would decline less than 5 percent from the 365 billion dollar level established in 1953;

a few said they thought it might be more.

Gerhard Colm, chief economist of the privately supported National Planning Association, foresaw a "mildly downward" business trend next year.

Business activity might fall as much as 6 percent below the full employment level, he said in an address at the conference.

"Unemployment might rise from 1½ million in 1953 to perhaps 3½ million in 1954," he said.

In the past 23 years, he added, the world has moved on "but the code has stood still," and now should provide more latitude to portray life honestly."

Announcement of Goldwyn's letter followed the announcement by Producer Howard Hughes yesterday that the RKO movie "The French Line," starring Jane Russell, although turned down by the code administrators, will open in St. Louis tomorrow.

Goldwyn's action came in a letter to Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Association of America, a copy of which was released today by the New York office of Samuel Goldwyn, producer, incorporated.

Calling for "a greater degree of latitude," Goldwyn's letter added:

"Unless the code is brought reasonably up to date, the tendency to by-pass it, which has already begun, will increase.

"I want to see the code continue," Goldwyn continued, "as a respected guide of conduct which is observed, not disregarded, by picture makers. But to preserve as such, we must bring it into harmony with the times."

Suggesting a meeting of all producers who have signed the code, to discuss "modernization," Goldwyn said he believed such action "imperative."

In the past 23 years, he added, the world has moved on "but the code has stood still," and now should provide more latitude to portray life honestly."

Apples in Salads, 20th Century Style, Is Popular Dish

People have been using the apple in their cookery for centuries. Previous to the 20th century, one was most likely to encounter the apple cooked in puddings, pies and dumplings. It was scarcely used "as is," except to be eaten out of hand from the fruit bowl.

But came the 20th century, the century of salads, and apples were valued anew for their crispness, their color, tart-sweet flavor. "Just what we need in our salads," people said, and the apple had a new stellar role.

The Waldorf Salad is the perfect example of how popular apples are in the salad world. Newer and more adventurous is apple avocado fiesta salad in which two completely different fruits make a most delicious combination.

Buy crisp red apples for this salad, and use the apple unpeeled to get the color contrast of its vital skin.

APPLE AVOCADO FIESTA SALAD

1 Red apple, unpeeled
2 ripe avocados
1/2 cup diced celery
1/2 cup chopped salted peanuts or other nuts
1/2 cup French dressing or mayonnaise
Salad greens, for garnish.

Wash, core and dice apple.

Peel and dice one avocado. Combine diced apple, avocado, celery and nuts.

Add 1/2 the French dressing or mayonnaise, and mix lightly. Peel, seed and cut remaining avocado into quarters. Pour one tablespoon of the remaining French dressing or mayonnaise over each avocado quarter.

Important: This salad, to be at its best, should be made not longer than one hour before serving.

Pork Cottage Roll Is Handy Meat Cut

A smoked boneless pork butt (sometimes called a cottage roll) is about as handy a meat as you can find. First of all, it's so easy to prepare. Just cover it with water, add a few seasonings such as a garlic bud, a few whole cloves and a bay leaf, and let it cook slowly for two to three hours. Then it's all ready to slice and serve hot or cold.

Smoked butt leftovers are as easy to use as leftover ham. Thinly sliced smoked butt and rye bread sandwiches are tasty in the lunch box. Small pieces of the leftover butt may be ground and used in a "different" breakfast dish.

Make a medium thick white sauce and to it add ground smoked butt and diced hard cooked eggs. Cook over low heat, stirring carefully; season to taste and serve over hot buttered toast.

Baked Mackerel Is Inexpensive Dish

A one-pound can of mackerel, which is very inexpensive, will yield four generous servings of an easy-to-make recipe.

Drain mackerel, remove skin and soft bones and arrange in a single layer in a shallow baking dish. Pour a can of mushroom soup mixed with $\frac{1}{4}$ cup of milk over fish. Bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes in the oven of your range. Serve with mashed potatoes, stewed tomatoes and a tossed green salad.

Wedding Anniversaries

TODAY

Mr. and Mrs. A. Michael Drabinsky, 738 East Philadelphia avenue, Boyertown, 30 years.

Reports of the recent parties given by the auxiliary at Valley Forge Army hospital were presented by Mrs. Daniel Hayes, rehabilitation chairman. She also gave her plans for an auditorium party to be given for 140 men Jan. 4 at the Veterans' Administration hospital, Philadelphia. Members who are able to provide any sort of musical entertainment, cakes or who would like to help at the party are requested to contact her.

Chairman of the Junior Auxiliary members, Mrs. Russell Benner, told the seniors that they had made over 100 tray mats and favors for the Valley Forge Army hospital for Christmas.

A total of 108 garments were contributed by the auxiliary at the Needlework ingathering, it was announced by Mrs. Nevin Yerger.

Mrs. Ginther reported that work would begin on another quilt at the Jan. 20 session.

Members voted to make a contribution of $5 toward the "wooden church crusade," the drive to collect funds to build a church behind the iron curtain.

COLOR FOR THE KITCHEN

If you find suddenly that your kitchen seems depressing, examine the walls to see if they might be brightened by a new paint job. Yellow is a lively bright shade for a kitchen on the North side of a house or for one that does not get much light. Coral is a cheerful shade, particularly if teamed with bright white.

Wool Jersey in an interesting tweedy weave offers a nice fabric choice for the sort of dress made to be busy right through the day. Grabois uses this fabric in a well-manered dress that goes in for a button-studded bodice with buttons rimming the sleeves.

The fly-front skirt is slim and adds animation with pleated fullness at the sides like an overskirt. Cut-out metal medallions brighten up the calfskin belt.

Save Money, Use Tile To Remodel Kitchen Walls

If upkeep is an important consideration in building or remodeling your home, surface your kitchen and bathroom walls all the way to the ceiling with tile. You'll save the cost of painting these rooms every year or two, for the tile can be kept fresh just by washing it down with hot soapy water.

Life in Arabia Described by Robert Holmes While Visiting His Parents for the Holidays

By FAY FAUST
(Mercury Staff Writer)

"What I really miss most are my family and friends," said Robert J. Holmes, who returned recently from Saudi Arabia where he has been employed as an engineer by the American Oil company for the past eight months.

He is spending three weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. Holmes, Douglassville, for the Christmas and New Year's holiday.

Present living conditions for after which he will return to Ras Tanura, Arabia, situated along the Persian Gulf.

His wife, accompanied by their year old daughter, Patty, is presently in New York where she is making preparations to join her husband as soon as family housing is made available.

All the company homes are air conditioned because of the extreme heat during the Summer months.

In the Winter months though the temperature ranges from 30 to 80 degrees.

Mrs. Holmes also mentioned that cars and trucks owned by the oil company are painted bright red so they can easily be seen if lost on the desert.

Upon arriving in Arabia 8 months ago, he was sent to school in Lebanon for a short period to learn the native language which he found rather difficult. Now, however, he can speak enough Arabic to make himself understood while instructing his workers, although he has not yet learned to write what he terms "scribbling."

When asked what he thought of his daughter growing up in Arabia, he remarked that children over there are very healthy. He added that there are good schools, good homes and food products which come from every part of the world. Meat is shipped from Austria and New Zealand, dairy products from Denmark and Holland, and fresh fruits and vegetables from Africa.

As far as education is concerned, school is provided through the ninth grade. After that, children may attend an American university in Lebanon to continue their education.

Amusement is found in the form of American movies, swimming, boating and various kinds of sports.

Typical of the country is the large number of camels. He described a ride on one of the animals (the one-hump kind) as being rather rough and very wobbly aside from being very high from the ground.

He described the natives as clad mostly in ragged clothes, but having fairly nice facial features.

Mr. Holmes' job provides him with an opportunity to travel. He journeyed to Da-

Century Club Party Slated for Tomorrow

Approximately 125 young people and adults are expected to attend the Century club's annual children's Christmas party tomorrow afternoon.

Musical selections by Mrs. Jack Wennersten and group carol singing will open the program scheduled for 2 o'clock at the Christ Episcopal church parish house.

Students of a local dance studio will also entertain club members and their guests.

General chairman for the party is Mrs. Harry Charles. Co-chairman is Mrs. Karl S. Johnson. Committee members include: Mrs. Chester H. Bechtel, Mrs. Carl Boyer, Mrs. Ralph F. Buchert, Mrs. William J. DeSoi, Mrs. Jesse G. Hafer.

Mrs. Leonard A. Huff, Mrs. Richard F. Smale Jr., Mrs. Anthony Spatziani, Mrs. Bayard Van Rensselaer, Mrs. J. Harold Latch, Temple, Pa. Mr. Latch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Latch, Douglassville.

A daughter was born recently to St. Joseph's hospital, Reading, to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Latch, Temple, Pa. Mr. Latch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Latch, Douglassville.

A son was born yesterday in the Pottstown hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Kornoski, 831 North Adams street.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Wittman, Maple Gardens, became the parents of a boy yesterday in the Memorial hospital.

A son was born yesterday in the Memorial hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crater, Pottstown RD 2.

Day after day she's dreamed of owning Revere Ware... the most beautiful, most efficient, most highly prized of ALL cooking utensils.

Christmas Films Shown, Reports Given At American Legion Auxiliary Meeting

Colored films, one depicting the story of the first Christmas, the other showing how Clement Moore was inspired to write the immortal "The Night before Christmas," were program features at the combined party and business meeting of the American Legion auxiliary, George A. Amole post, unit 47.

Entertainment was arranged by the program chairman, Mrs. Daniel Hayes, and Mrs. Harry Ginther was the hostess for the evening. A gift exchange and group carol singing were also included in the activities.

During the business session presided over by Mrs. Leroy Freed, reports were received from several committees.

Mrs. Harry Ginther, membership chairman, told the auxiliary that 56 more members were needed for them to reach their quota of 451 set by the department of Pennsylvania. She also said that she would like to have the quota completed by Jan. 25 to make the group eligible for a national citation.

Reports of the recent parties given by the auxiliary at Valley Forge Army hospital were presented by Mrs. Daniel Hayes, rehabilitation chairman. She also gave her plans for an auditorium party to be given for 140 men Jan. 4 at the Veterans' Administration hospital, Philadelphia. Members who are able to provide any sort of musical entertainment, cakes or who would like to help at the party are requested to contact her.

Chairman of the Junior Auxiliary members, Mrs. Russell Benner, told the seniors that they had made over 100 tray mats and favors for the Valley Forge Army hospital for Christmas.

A total of 108 garments were contributed by the auxiliary at the Needlework ingathering, it was announced by Mrs. Nevin Verger.

Mrs. Ginther reported that a work would begin on another quilt at the Jan. 20 session.

Members voted to make a contribution of $5 toward the "wooden church crusade," the drive to collect funds to build a church behind the iron curtain.

Holiday Invitation

Upper Perk Tops Quakers, 62-53; Pennridge Defeats Catasauqua

By ED TAGGERT

Upper Perkiomen moved into the finals of its own Holiday Invitational tournament at East Greenville last night by defeating Quakers, 62-53. The other finalist in tonight's championship game will be Pennridge as the Rams downing Catasauqua, 66-61, in last night's second game.

It was the Indians first win in three decisions and started them on the track towards their third tournament title in the six years it has been held. It was also the first win for Upper Perk under its new coach, Fran Roncace, who used eight men to gain the victory.

Superior rebounding was an important factor in the final outcome, who was rebounding well unlike the hustling Indians. Terry Dierder, his own board, chipped in Fetterman swept the boards clean with a trio of deuces.

The Indians were still cutting of 15 rebounds and Lee Gaugler and Leroy Long offered plenty of sharply and Gaugler scored three fast layups. Two more early-period buckets by Bob Smith and Fetterman boosted UP into a 27-13 lead but Dietz and Znotens started to hit during the rest of the frame to cut the advantage to 33-28 at the intermission.

After the Quakers whittled the advantage to four points midway in the third period, Upper Perk scored nine straight points to go into a safe lead, 48-37, as the final period started.

Upper Perk put a dent in its line shooting average with several points early in the fourth quarter beginning as Long and Fritz paced but Fetterman and Fritz each scored a first period attack which put two more buckets and the Upper Perk in front, 17-9. The Indians 3-2 zone defense barred the accuracy mark from the field.

Quakers from shooting inside and The Perkers will meet Pennridge, Bill Trumbore missed on eight of tonight's final game at 9 o'clock straight long shots.

Ken Hager, the Rams outstanding gridiron, was the high man for the night with 25 points. His steady point-making was too much for the Roughriders to cope with.

With Hager scoring three of his 11 field goals in the third period, Pennridge moved to a 46-24 lead. The scrappy Catty players really came storming back at this point with Ron Heffner and Howie Case leading the way.

Heffner, who ranked first for his team with 23 points, and Case each tallied four twisters in the third period. After leading by 16 points, the Rams were only ahead of 53-46 at the end of the third period.

CASE, who tallied 15 points for Catasauqua, fouled out with three minutes remaining. That left practically all the scoring burden on the stubby Heffner. But—he was up to it as he tossed them from in any direction with either hand.

Two running left-handed push shots by Heffner cut the Penn-ridge advantage to 64-59 with less again had the crowd howling as he stole a mid-court pass and drib-

But with less than 30 seconds

Brooke Moyer, a loose-jointed for-eral assists and he also contributed nine points towards the Rams' vic-

AN INTERESTING sidelight on

Wednesday's meeting between these two teams is that 20 years ago, William

W. Barber Jr., St. Mark's headmaster and hockey coach, taught and coached Edward Hall, who is now the headmaster and hockey coach at The Hill school. At one time, Hall was assistant headmaster and assistant hockey coach to Barber.

So this afternoon, two old friends will be sitting on the opposite sides of the arena, each rooting for his team to win in a game that promises to start a rivalry that could last for years to come.

Bucks Writers' Choice

Magazine Votes Olson Boxer of Year

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 (AP)—Carl

Olson, the world middle-weight champion, has been named

"Fighter of the Year" for 1953 by

Ring magazine in a copyrighted article in its February issue. The selection is at odds with the Boxing Writers' association's pick of

Kid Gavilan as winner of the Edward J. Neil award.

Editor Nat Fleischer said his staff decided on Olson after considering welter champ Gavilan, heavyweight king Rocky

Marciano and lightweight champ Jimmy Carter.

Pointing out that Gavilan had been floored by Carmen Basilio and beaten in a non-title bout by Danny

Womber, Fleischer's board found

Olson, and Olson alone, showed no

minus factors.

Despite Marciano's two knockout victories in title defenses, The Ring pointed out that the rematch with Jersey Joe Walcott was marred by Joe's failure to get up and Rocky was slow to get started against Roland LaStarza. Carter was faulted for three non-title de-

by Sugar Ray Robinson.

According to The Ring reci-ord only 4500 professional boxers are licensed in North and South America as compared to 10,000 in pre World

War two days. Fleischer found a decline in the East and Mid-

West but found encouraging signs in the trend toward local blackouts of television fights

as Gavilan-Bratton and Olson-

Turpin.

Fifteen title bouts were held in 1953 as compared with 16 a year ago. All champions retained their titles with Olson taking over the middleweight crown vacated

by Sugar Ray Robinson.

Pointing out that the gift that says

"the best for you!"

is the gift that says

Watch-Night Rites Set New Year's Eve At Mennonite Church

An annual traditional watch-night service will be held in the Royersford Mennonite Brethren in Christ church Thursday night starting at 10 o'clock and continuing until midnight.

The Rev. Jansen E. Hartman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hartman of Royersford, will have charge of a Home Missionary service at the Royersford church building Sunday night. He will be accompanied by a group of home missionaries who will speak and sing.

He is expected to bring with him some of the students of the Berean Bible school, Allentown. The Rev. Hartman is president and dean of the school, also director of home missions of the Mennonite Brethren in Christ church. He resides in Allentown.

Another service is planned for the Spring City church Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock, when the Rev. and Mrs. James V. Robinson, accepted candidates to Pakistan, will speak. The Rev. Robinson is a native of Philadelphia. Mrs. Robinson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Pearson, of Spring City. Gloria Pearson Robinson is a graduate nurse of Abington hospital and Pennsylvania Bible Institute of Philadelphia. The Rev. Robinson is a graduate of Temple Bible college at Chattanooga, Tenn. The public is invited.

A N IMPATIENT TRAVELER bearded the station agent at a whistle stop and demanded, "Is that 3:27 local on time for a change?" "Right on the minute," the station agent assured him. At four o'clock, however, there was still no sign of the local, and the traveler demanded, "Why the devil didn't you tell me that confounded train was late again when I asked you?" "Lookee here," said the station agent firmly, "I ain't paid to set here and knock the railroad."

The fashion for parakeets (which for a time replaced toy poodles in the affections of countless housewives) reminded Harvey Stone of the day Tony called his home to announce, "I bring home a parakeet tonight." "Parakeet!" screamed Tony's wife. "Whadda we need another keef for? We gotta 'leven keet now!"

BABB FAMILY HOLDS REUNION

EARL S. BENFIELD, Representative

129 North Walnut St.

Phone 7-2503

43d Wedding Anniversary,
Two Birthdays
Also Noted

The Babb family reunion was held recently in the Keystone Fire company dining room, Boyertown, at which time the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Britton Leidy and David Smith and the 43d wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Amandus Erb were celebrated.

The center of the table was decorated with Christmas greens covered with Christmas balls, two tall red and green candles at either side, miniature Christmas trees, a large red candle on one end and a snow man with a large red candle at the other end of the table.

James Leidy entertained the group with Christmas carol accordion solos. A large cake, covered with candles to commemorate the three anniversaries graced the table. The celebrants received many gifts.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Endy, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Babb, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Rhoads and daughters, Kathie and Karen; Mr. and Mrs. Britton Leidy and grandson, James Leidy; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Leidy, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Reitnauer and daughters, Flora and Suzanne; Mr. and Mrs. Amandus Erb, all of Boyertown; and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Smith and sons, William and David of Patterson, N. J.

Mr. Leidy was employed by Joseph Pike, a contractor, in Boyertown and before that had been in business for himself. On Oct. 17, he and his wife, the former Susanna R. Muthard, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Mr. Weller was for 50 years a member of the Washington camp 104 of the Patriotic Order of the Sons of America. He also belonged to the Roslyn Castle 228 of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, Nest 22, of the Fraternal Order of Orioles, Boyertown Camp 500 of the Modern Woodmen of America, the Liberty Fire company of New Berlinville and St. John's Hill Reformed church.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Mary Elizabeth, wife of Paul Offner of Loraine; a son, Daniel of 535 Montgomery Avenue, New Berlinville; a grandchild, Rolland Offner of Shillington, two brothers, Amandus of Boyertown RD 1, and Herbert of 384 South Reading Avenue; two sisters, Ellen, wife of Charles Strunk of 382 South Reading Avenue, Boyertown, and Mable, wife of Norman Latshaw, Barto RD 1.

Funeral services will be held at the Schwenk funeral home, 124 West Philadelphia Avenue, Boyertown, on Saturday at 2 p.m. The Rev. John L. Herbster, pastor of St. John's Hill Reformed church, will preside and interment will be at the Hill church cemetery.

"I believe in fighting fire with fire," Senator Wiley (R-Wis.), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, told a reporter.

Wiley likened the offering of protection to Soviet agents if they provide vital information to the "use of silver bullets."

Senator Welker (R-Idaho), a member of the Senate Internal Security sub-committee which has been probing Communists in Government, agreed in a separate interview, saying:

"I have been in favor of offering some sort of protection and security, if it can be arranged so these men would not fear the consequences of turning to our side."

Welker said such a proposal might cause some criticism that "you are giving social security to a spy, but it also might collapse Soviet espionage apparatus here."

SENATOR HUNT (D-Wyo), a member of the Senate Armed Services committee, said the plan should be tried.

"I would want definite proof that they really were Communist agents," Hunt said. "Any such offer might bring a great response from those who may or may not have Communist contacts."

The senatorial comment resulted from a suggestion by Igor Gouzenko, former code clerk in the Soviet embassy in Ottawa, who cracked a spy ring in Canada by his testimony and documents he produced in 1945.

He recommended that the Government "make it worth while for some of them to quit and come out with their documents."

As an indication that there may be hundreds of Soviet agents now operating in the United States, Gouzenko said "they spend several million dollars in telegrams alone."

Many of these Russian agents learn the way people are treated in this country and Canada and, if assured fair treatment, would break with Communism as he did, Gouzenko said.

A heavy loss of life was averted because there were fire escapes on all four buildings. Owners of the structures had installed them five years ago.

STEEL PRODUCTION SET

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 (UPI)—Steel operations this holiday week are scheduled at 74.3 percent of rated capacity for an expected production of 1,674,000 tons of ingots and steel for castings, the American Iron and Steel Institute said today.

High street is the city's main thoroughfare and it was closed to traffic all day.

Consumed in the roaring inferno, uncontrolled for four hours, were scores of Christmas trees, gay lights, toys and presents. The occupants of the fire-swept buildings on High street had to flee in their nightclothing and lost all personal possessions.

Three persons unaccounted for during the day were located early tonight by police. Mrs. Delia Rodier was found at the home of a friend. Police said she had fled the building unharmed. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nash spent the night at the home of relatives.

Little remained of four connected buildings—with stores in the first floor and living quarters on the upper three—but the brick and stone walls, and wrecking crews prepared to tear them down lest they collapse.

United States Signs Aid Pact With Pakistan

KARACHI, Pakistan, Dec. 28 (AP)—The United States signed an aid pact with Pakistan today—but it's not the proposed military program which has sparked bitter protests from India. Instead it provides this nation with up to 22 million dollars worth of US technical assistance.

The new agreement expands an American-Pakistan development program which in the past three years has furnished this land with $44,500,000 in technical aid.

KARACHI, Pakistan, Dec. 28 (AP)—The United States signed an aid pact with Pakistan today—but it's not the proposed military program which has sparked bitter protests from India. Instead it provides this nation with up to 22 million dollars worth of US technical assistance.

The new agreement expands an American-Pakistan development program which in the past three years has furnished this land with $44,500,000 in technical aid.

There is evidence that the Hereford breed of beef cattle was bred to produce work animals in early-day England.
